ROYALLY WELCOMED IN CRESCENT CITY

Grand Reception Given President at New Orleans.

END OF SOUTHERN JOURNEY

From New Orleans the President Will Be Taken by Water to Norfolk, Va., on the Warship West Virginia—The Visit to Dixie Pleased Roosevelt.

New Orleans, Oct. 27—Gratitude for the immeasurable service he had rendered her in her successful struggle against the yellow fever epidemic was the dominant note in the splendid welcome which New Orleans extended to President Roosevelt today. Political differences were effaced and past antagonisms forgotten in a spontaneous demonstration of popular appreciation of the president's unfailing sympathy and practical help throughout the period of the ferever's visitation.

Traveling toward his southern journey's end the president traversed through the night the whole length of the state of Mississippi. He entered after darkness had fallen and he left it before the day had dawned, so that there was no opportunity for a friendly demonstration by the citizens of Governor Vardaman's state.

The sun's rays were not yet beginning to show when the train ran across the boundary line into Louisiana, and then for an hour or more sped through the strawberry fields of Tangipanoe parish. At Hammond there was a stop of a few minutes which gave opportunity for a large crowd of country people to express their kood will and enabled Senator Foster and Congressman Davey to board the train. There were no stops on the 52-mile run from Hammond to New Orleans, except at Kenner, where the train arrived ahead of time and lay until it was time to enter New Orleans.

The program arranged by the local committee contemplated the popular reception when the president had completed his tour of the harbor.

At Harahan the president's car was switched from the main track of the Illinois central and then carried over the belt line to the Stuyvesant docks where the commodious ocean-going steamer of the Southern Pacific awaited him.

On board the steamer were 400 of the leading men and women of the city representing the various committees connected with the reception; the commercial exchanges, the professions, the business community and the women's clubs. On it also were Governor Blanchard and his staff, brilliant in gold lace; Dr. White, who had fought the good fight as the government's representative against the fever together with all his surgeons in full uniforms officers of the army and navy; Mayor Behrman and leading federal, state and city officials.

It had been arranged that the special train should run within four feet of the wharf. An improvised staircase was provided so that the party could walk to the ship. On the wharf were assembled railroad officials, dock workmen, sailors from the ships and such of the general public as had been able to run the gauntlet of special police protection.

It was promptly at 9 o'clock when the train ran into the docks, and there was an enthusiastic demonstration from the steamer as the president ascended from his car and passed with beaming face to the ship's side.

Mayor Welcomes President.

On behalf of the city Mayor Behrman extended a brief welcome and then the guest was escorted by the government, the mayor and President Saunders of the progressive union to a point of vantage whence he might have pointed out to him the features of interest connected with the trip along the city's water front. While the steamer backed out into the stream and held a brief levee during which he was presented to a large majority of those who filled the steamer's decks. The president manifested the pleasure he felt over the distinct cordiality of his reception with characteristic animation with the groups that surrounded him.

When the Comus had straightened out she headed up stream and ran around the Crescent past Southport, whence the president was enabled to obtain a view of the great leevee of the Pontchartrain district, and see the vast fields of ripening sugar cane on the plantations lying on either side of the river. A few miles above the city the Comus turned and then came slowly down the river passing along the whole front of the Southern metropolis. On either bank the people the levees as the steamer, aflutter with flags, proceeded on her way amid the din of the sirens of the river craft and the shrill whistles of manufacturing industries. Passing the Algiers point, the Comus hugged the west shore and the president saw for the first time the immense steel floating dock of the government and the naval reservation. Further down, on the east bank of the river, he saw the historic Ursulines convent, enshrouded in the national colors, the United States barracks, where several hundred of the regular soldiers escaped infection during the infection and the unfinished shaft at Chalmette, marking the battlefield of New Orleans, and still further on he got a glimpse of the federal cemetery, where lie thousands of bodies of those who perished for the union.

The Comus carried the presidential party beyond the immense terminals under construction at Port Chalmette and then turning back, came to the city.

Rough Riders Act as Escort.

As the vessel neared the Harrison street sheds, aflame with patriotic colors, the air was rent with the blasts of steam whistles and the thunder of a presidential salute, and the president looked out upon the sea of people gathered on the river front to greet him.

When the boat landed at 10:55 he was escorted ashore and helped into an open carriage drawn by four handsome horses. With him rode Governor Blanchard, Mayor Behrman and Secretary Loeb and John G. Skipwith, Harry Stuart Guacier, James Douglas and Otto Winter, who had followed Colonel Roosevelt as Rough Riders in the war with Spain, served as a special mounted escort.

The confederate veterans held the right of the line with the Sons of Veterans and the Spanish War veterans, made up of the survivors of the several Louisiana regiments, which had responded to the nation's call to arms in the most recent of American wars, following.

The parade included also all the troops of the New Orleans district in the Louisiana national guard, and the other military bodies, including the uniformed Odd Fellows, Pythians and Woodmen, the Fourth and Ninety-first coast artillery, the naval reserve cades, various schools and universities, the Grand Army of the Republic, civic taining the Louisiana senators and containing the Louiiana senators and congressmen, various federal, state and city officials and representatives of the commercial, professional and industrial life of New Orleans.

Streets Replica o' Carnival Season.

On the streets the scenes were almost a replica of those of the carnival season. The weather was ideal, and although there still exist some quarantines, thousands of citizens of Louisiana and Mississippi had poured into New Orleans to swell the local population in a twin celebration of the president's visit and the triumph of science over the fever scourge.

Never before has New Orleans been more elaborately decorated. From almost every store and residence along the two miles of the route there blazed the familiar red, white and blue in graceful festoons about the well known features of the guest of the day. The flag of the nation flew everywhere, while thousands of men who had voted against him wore th epresident's picture in the lapels of their coats.

A multitude crowded th esidewalks on either side of the route, while every gallery was filled and every window had an observer. From the time the president's carriage rolled away from

RUSSIAN STRIKE IS RAPIDLY SPREADING

BLOODY REVOLUTION IS FEARED

From Reports the Russian Empire is on the Verge of a Great Revolt, with No Trains Running the Government Cannot Transport Troops.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 26.—1.15 p. m.—Russia is practically isolated today from the rest of the continent of Europe as the international train service on all the lines have virtually ceased. The tie up in the interior is more complete than yesterday. Only trains running are operated by the railroad battalions. The strike contagion is spreading. All classes of workmen are organizing similar strikes, and industrial life in the country is coming to a standstill. The situation cannot long continue. Either the workmen will soon be starved into submission or pillage with military interference and bloodshed on a large scale are bound to follow.

At Moscow 600 cabmen have already fought the strikers, whom they charge with taking the bread out of their mouths. In many cities, especially at Moscow, the question of food is becoming extremely serious.

Collisions between troops and strikers are reported to have occurred at several places.

At Ekaterinoslav a regular pitched battle between soldiers and strikers was fought and the city was left in darkness; but, as a rule, the revolutionary leaders are keeping their men in hand.

Communication by telegraph with many interior points is interrupted.

The whole country is becoming alarmed, and in St. Petersburg an incipient panic prevails. The boats and the Finnish trains, now the only means of egress are crowded with people fleeing abroad.

The situation here has grown much worse over night. The ranks of the 40,000 workmen from the mills and factories who joined the strikers yesterday were increased by 30,000 more this morning. All the employes of the port, 4,000 in number, walked out, and 12,000 other men from the steel works left work in a body.

The inhabitants of St. Petersburg awoke to find the capital resembling a beleaguered city. The shops in the Vasiliostrov districts and in all the suburbs are closed, windows are boarded and barred and mounted patrols are to be seen everywhere in the street.

Except in the heart of the city women are afraid to venture out.

Workmen are gathering at all the places frequented by Father Gapon, but they are quiet, and th eCossacks have had no provocation to interfere. The general appearance of the town is menacing.

The prices of food have gone up and the supply of beef is only sufficient for three days, but there are ample supplies of wheat and rye for two months. The emperor and the court at Peterhoff are supplied by a warship from St. Petersburg.

All the families who can afford it have laid in supplies and can stand a The suffering is the heaviest on the poor who live from hand to mouth.

All the bakers sold out their bread before noon. The meat dealers have been ordered by the revolutionists not to deliver meat to the troops under pain of death and consequently the soldiers are living on canned food. The butchers have notified their patrons that the meat market will probably be closed tomorrow, because of the lack of meat.

All the public schools of St. Petersburg were closed today.

By an imperial order the garrison of St. Petersburg has been placed under the command of General Trepoff, assistant minister of the interior, who is held responsible for the safety and order of the capital and the troops distributed in various parts of the city, but martial law, with its accompanying hardships to the people, has not been proclaimed.

The garrison of St. Petersburg has hitherto been included in the military district of St. Petersburg, of which Grand Duke Vladimir is chief.

All the ministers today were in conference with General Trepoff. They are deliberating on an enlarged law of assembly.

Crew Arrested for Mutiny.

London, Oct. 27.—A special dispatch from Odessa says it is reported that a mutiny has occurred on the Russian battleship Catherine II at Sebastopol, and that four hundred of her crew have been arrested.

General Strike Oct. 28.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, Oct. 27.—Agitators are organizing revolutionary meetings in the factory districts, and a general strike is anticipated on October 28th.

The prices of food are rapidly increasing.

Telephone communication with the city of Lodz is interrupted.

Government Works Stopped.

Kurksky Russia, Oct. 27.—The local government institutions have ceased work, according to the orders of the strikers.

INTERESTED IN AUTOMOBILING.

John D. Rockefeller Has Become an Ardent Automist.

New York, Oct. 27.—John D. Rockefeller has taken such a great interest in automobiling, says the Tribune, that it was reported in Tarrytown yesterday that he will learn to run a machine himself. Since his return from Cleveland, Mr. Rockefeller is out in his big steamer every day sitting beside his French chauffeur.

Until a short time ago, Mr. Rockefeller was opposed to automobiling, and had large signs bearing these words:

"No motor cars allowed" put up at all entrances to his estate at Pocantico Hills. Now he owns two big machines. William Rockefeller is an expert chauffeur and owns nine cars of various makes.

Governor and Mrs. Montague, of Virginia, who have been the guests of the Rockefellers, left Pocantico Hills yesterday for New York, from where they will soon leave for their home.

MANY ARE KILLED IN WRECK.

Passengers Trains Have Head-On Collision on the Rock Island Road.

Kansas City, Oct. 27.—Westbound passenger train No. 11, on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad which left Chicago at 8:30 last night, collided head-on with westbound passenger train No. 12, which left Kansas City at 6:30 last evening, one mile north of Fairfield, Iowa. According to reports received at the local offices of the Rock Island railroad, three persons were killed outright and several wounded.

The dead so far known are:

Engineer Milkes, of Muscatine.

Mail Clerk Canfield, of Muscatine.

Detective Griffith, of Lucas, Iowa.

An unknown man.

Both trains had clearing orders and the accident is believed to have been caused by the mistake of the dispatcher.

Wholesale Shooting at Negro Dance.

Americus, Ga., Oct. 27.—A wholesale shooting affair occurred at a mullet supper at a plantation near here. Negroes from a neighboring plantation started the gunwork and forty shots were fired among the dancers. One negro was killed instantly and three others shot down. Deputy Sheriff Gatewood has gone to the scene to effect arrests, returning with full particulars later.

Fever Situation at Pensacola.

Pensacola, Fla., Oct. 27.—One case and no deaths was the report of the board of health officers today. The Mayor of Pensacola has asked the state health officer to remove the cordon from around the city, he believing that the fever has about ended its career. His request, however, has not yet been granted.

One New Case at New Orleans.

New Orleans, Oct. 27.—Up to noon today there was one new case of yellow fever and no death reported.

SEVERAL PERSONS PERISH IN FLAMES

Railroad Hotel at Little Rock, Ark., Burns to Ground.

SIX BODIES HAVE BEEN FOUND.

The Ruins Have Not Been Thoroughly Searched and It Is Believed More Victims Will Be Found—Lamp Explosion Supposed To Be Cause.

Hot Springs, Ark., Oct. 27.—Six bodies have been taken from the ruins of a railroad hotel located at the corner of Elm and East Olive streets which was gutted by fire early today. Of these two unidentified are charred beyond recognition. The dead are:

Harry Bradley, a waiter.

Edward Snyder, porter.

Mrs. Mack, a musician.

A. L. Mann, railroad conductor, believed to be from Denver, Colo.

Two unknown men.

The ruins have not yet been thoroughly searched, and there may be other bodies in them.

The hotel is a two-story frame building, containing thirty rooms, all but one of which was occupied by from one to four people.

The hotel was patronized by invalids and cripples, who were under treatment.

The fire is believed to have been caused by an explosion of a lamp. There was only one narrow exit, that being a stairway, and dozens were compelled to jump from the second story in many instances in their night clothes. One man, Fred Owerson, of Hot Springs, was probably fatally injured.

The loss to the building was small and amounted to only $2,500.

TAFT NOT PLANNING TO RUN.

Reported that Present Secretary of War Is Not Presidential Candidate.

Washington, Oct. 27.—The Post said today that Secretary of War Taft is not planning to enter the campaign for the presidency, has no intention of doing so, is content with his seat in the cabinet and means to stay there as long as the president desires it.

Such is the substance of an announcement made by him yesterday, and which will tend to put at rest temporarily, at least, the talk of his being a candidate for the presidency.

Secreary Taft is quoted as follows:

"I have no intention of resigning from the cabinet to make a campaign for the presidency, and, furthermore, I have no intention wastever of making a campaign for the office of the nation's chief executive.

"I am satisfied with my present place and shall be pleased to remain in the cabinet as long as I can. I have already said that I had no intention of becoming a candidate for the presidency, and authorize no one to spring the 'presidential boom,' as it has been called."

The Post adds that Secretary Taft's statement was called forth by published reports in connection with his recent Akron, O., speech, that he has presidential ambitions.

Young Autoist Fined $350.

Atlanta, Oct. 27.—Percy W. Pybus, the young machinist who several weeks ago ran down and killed Branch Lewis, Jr., on Washington street, was sentenced to pay a fine of $350 by Judge L. S. Roan. With the consent of the prosecution, the wording of the indictment of the case was changed, so that Pybus was charged with involuntary manslaughter in the commission of a lawful act, without using due caution and circumspection, in the places of the first charge, which read manslaughter in the commission of an unlawful act.

Heavy Receipts at Huntsville.

Huntsville, Ala., Oct. 27.—All cotton records in this market were broken on Wednesday when the receipts exceeded 600 bales in one day. The several frosts have ripened the top crop and the receipts are expected to run high for a few days and then gradually diminish.

GAINESVILLE TRADE RAPIDLY GROWING

Thirty Carloads of Wire Fencing Shipped to One Firm.

VOLUME OF BUSINESS GREAT

Wholesale Market Which Supplies Large and Prosperous Country, Which is Being Constantly Enlarged and Extended—Gainesville's Future.

Few people realize the immense business carried on by many firms of Gainesville who are in the wholesale trade. Gainesville can safely boast of a few of the leading houses of the State in their respective lines, the hardware and mill supply business being principal among them.

To give an idea of the volume of business, it may be mentioned that a hardware company recently ordered at one time thirty carloads of wire fencing. This item alone is one of great proportions, but when it is considered that this is only one branch of the business, it may readily be noted that the wholesale houses of Gainesville are securing their share of the trade.

But this volume of business should not be surprising. Gainesville is located conveniently for the trade, the rates are favorable, and the firms doing a wholesale business are sufficiently well provided from a financial standpoint to purchase in large quantities, thus assuring close prices. Gainesville merchants are shipping goods to points within a radius of 100 miles, and the territory covered justly belongs to this city, everything being equal. It is estimated that the extension of the Gainesville and Gulf Railway from Fairfield south to Tampa will open up more territory, the trade of which will naturally come here. When this territory is opened new houses will be established here, which will make Gainesville one of the leading wholesale centers of the State.

Gainesville is also growing from a manufacturing standpoint, and in all the prospects for the future are bright.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

Well in Hand at Both Pensacola and New Orleans.

Pensacola, October 27.—No deaths and but two cases were reported up to noon. There were 12 new cases yesterday, two deaths and several suspicious cases.

At New Orleans.

New Orleans, Oct. 27.—For the twenty-four hours ending at 6 p. m. yesterday there were three new cases and no deaths. Up to noon today there was only one new case and no deaths. The people here are now confident that yellow fever will never again visit this city.

A VALUABLE PURCHASE.

Mrs. S. C. Tucker Secured Fine Property and Will Build.

Mrs. S. C. Tucker has purchased from Major W. R. Thomas the property at the corner of West Union and South Pleasant street. The lot is 66 feet front on Union street and 120 feet on Pleasant street, and is one of the most desirable pieces of real state in the city.

It is understood that Mrs. Tucker will erect a substantial business block on the property, and will engage in the mercantile business there.

Golden Rule Bottling Works Will Soon Occupy New Building.

The Golden Rule Bottling Works will soon occupy a new home, a building now being erected for them on West Union street, between Garden and Pleasant.

This firm is one of the latest enterprises of Gainesville, but its success has been remarkable. The works are located at present on East Market street.

T. W. Nine is manager of the firm.

Fire at Charlotte, N. C.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 27.—Fire which started in Cochrane's livery stable, on North College street, destroyed property to the extent of $50,000. Half a block between East Trade and Fifth streets, was practically burned up. Twenty horses, most of them belonging to parties living out of town attending the Mecklenburg fair, were burned to death. A stiff wind was blowing and the fire department got the fire under control with difficulty. The losses were partially covered by insurance.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

"NEW THOUGHT" UNIVERSITY.

Wife of Former Congressman Gives $1,000,000 to Establish School.

Chicago, Oct. 27.—A Tribune dispatche from St. Louis, Mo., says that if plans of Mrs. Charles F. Joy, wife of the former St. Louis congressman are carried out, a $1,000,000 university of which the object will be the study of occult and psychic phenomena, the human soul and all the arts and sciences of the "New Thought" not recognized by established schools, will be built overlooking the Pacific near Santa Barbara, Cal. In addition to the university, Mrs. Joy proposes to establish a sociological colony where the science of life and the laws, duties and responsibilities of parenthood will be studied.

"My plan is," said Mrs. Joy, "to bring about the founding of a university in which the great trinity—the human soul mind and body—will be properly trained, each in conjunction with the other and not the sacrifice of one by ignoring the other, as now too largely prevails."

BIG STRIKE IS AVERTED.

Operatives and Mill Owners Will Compromise at Fall River.

Fall River, Mass., Oct. 27.—At the very moment when a strike of more than 25,000 textile operatives, employed in 75 mills in this city, seemed certain, the situation was suddenly cleared by the action of the Manufacturers' association and the outlook tonight is brighter than at any time since the wage question has come to the front.

Meetings of the various textile workers' unions had been called for tonight to take action on the question a strike in all the cotton factories controlled by members of the Manufacturers' association. Late this afternoon, however a committee representing the manufacturers held a conference with the committee from the textile council. The manufacturers expressed the hope that a compromise might be reached and requested that the unions not take action on the matter of calling a strike before next Monday night. This request was made, it was explained, in order that the manufacturers and the operatives, through their representatives, might hold further conferences.

New Chairman for Commission.

Atlanta, Oct. 27.—The state railroad commission met at noon Wednesday and reorganized by electing Hon. H. Warner Hill, of Greenville, chairman, to succeed the retiring chairman, Hon. J. Pope Brown. Mr. Hill is the senior member of the commission, upon whom by custom the chairmanship is always conferred. Hon. O. B. Stevens, the new member of the commission, attended a meeting of that body in his official capacity for the first time. Only a few unimportant detail matters were before the commission for consideration. The petition of H. L. Barfield, of Macon, for a reduction in the rates on woven wire fence was taken up, but upon request of the petitioner, further consideration was postponed until November 9.

Saved His Life.

J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump on my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief; two fifty cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

The surest thing on earth to get a man's system "out of whack" is heavy, sorry bread, which is caused by several reasons: First, the material may not be good; second, the cooking may be poor. The best flour in the world will make the heaviest bread if improperly mixed or cooked. WE USE THE BEST FLOUR and our "long suit" is knowing how to mix and bake it. Our bread does not cost any more than home-made, and in many instances it is so much more palatable.

QUEER FREAK OF NATURE.

Ground Sank in Alachua, Making Perfect Well Fifty Feet Deep.

It has long been a matter of history, the peculiar formation of the soil in certain sections of the State, particularly in some locations in Alachua county, which results sometimes of the depression of the earth in a dimension ranging in a few feet to several hundred feet. Many demonstrations of this character have been made, in a few instances the earth sinking to a distance of two hundred feet.

One of the most recent of these peculiarities occurred in Alachua recently, when the earth suddenly sank, making a depression about fifty feet deep and five feet in diameter at the top, gradually deminishing to about three feet at the bottom. The sink created a great deal of interest in Alachua at the time, many people visiting the scene, but now it is a "thing of the past," and no attention is paid to it.

The superstitious darky, of which Alachua has its share, declares that the place is haunted, and that it is the work of His Satanic Majesty. They have been heard to remark that all kinds of strange and mysterious noises are heard at dismal hours in the early morning, but no white person has ever admitted that such was the case.

DONNIE DOINGS.

A Sad Death—School Matters and Other Local News.

Donnie, Oct. 26.—Cherry Sink school opened this morning under the management of Wiley Tillman and Miss Becky Rutledge—two as fine teachers as the county affords—and we trust that they will be successful in their good work.

R. L. Tison, one of the shrewdest cotton buyers of our section, is doing a fine trade in the ginning business.

J. G. Osteen is doing a very fine business in the mercantile line and has a very pretty stock of fall and winter goods. Call and see him.

Cotton is down and everybody that has not sold feels sick over it, as the price is very low.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wilkerson, Oct. 21, the angel of death came knocking at the door and bore to the heavenly home of rest the sweet little baby girl, Lola. Its remains were laid to rest in Yulan cemetery. The many relatives and friends all join in extending sympathy in their sad hour of bereavement.

Don't be Imposed Upon.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Tom Stevens' Concern.

If the Brotherhood Protective Order of Elks are not sociable they are nothing, and at nearly every meeting some social feature is introduced for the entertainment of the members of Gainesville Lodge No. 990, which it goes without saying is appreciated.

One of the most delightful social features the Elks have yet enjoyed was the graphophone concert rendered through the courtesy of Tom Stevens just before the closing of the lodge Thursday night. Mr. Stevens has a fine machine and a number of valuable records, many of which he introduced for the benefit of his brother Elks. At the conclusion of the concert a rising vote of thanks was tendered the generous owner for one of the most enjoyable functions ever given in the lodge room.

No winter overcoat to worry us, no coal bills to stare us in the face, why should not the people of Florida be happy?

The Tropical Sun at West Palm Beach is arousing up somewhat since it has fallen heir to a $10,000 libel suit. Sockittoum.

If you want to grow vegetables in winter, you can do so in this section. By careful attention the frost can do little or no damage.

October has been a month that has been full of bright days, following a summer that has been more like Florida of old than for a number of years.

The yellow fever may be the means of bringing more people to this section than ever, as many will not go to New Orleans for that reason, although there is no danger.

The health of Gainesville has been remarkably good this past season, and with a system of sewerage it will be still better prepared to keep away diseases of a contagious or infectious nature.

Those who are looking for a Democratic victory in the rural districts of Ohio, will look in vain. The Western Reserve will never change, no more than Bucks county, Pa., where they still vote for Hickory Jackson.

Pensacola people are of the opinion there will more be tourists there this winter than ever before. The citizens always try to make it as pleasant as possible for their visitors, and that is the main reason they like to go there.

Wm. R. Hearst, the Municipal Ownership candidate for mayor of New York City, is making rapid gains on the other candidates. Mayor McClellan will no doubt be the winner on the Democratic ticket, but the battle will be fierce.

Of course, after President Roosevelt had that trouble with an automobilist in Washington and repealed the civil service rules in consequence, Kaiser Wilhelm had to have a lese majeste incident with an automobilist.—Atlanta Constitution.

There is more pleasure in living in Florida one year than one can obtain in three years in the uneven climate of the North. Six months in which to wear light summer garments, and no frosts to spoil the beauty of even the most delicate plant. Who wouldn't live in Florida?

Those Florida papers that were so eager to give space to articles attaching the Buckman school bill and the whole plan of the Board of Control, should now print Chairman N. P. Bryan's very frank and lucid statement on educational matters and the plans the board has for making this great State grander and more glorious than ever. Some of them have already done so—the others should not delay.—St. Augustine Record.

NOT A BUSINESS WAY.

Every now and then somebody starts a discussion as to whether the Postoffice Department is run in a business-like way. It can be settled in half a minute by a simple statement. The postoffice is not business-like, because it refuses knowingly to lend itself to fraud, although the fraud offers it revenue. A gentleman wishes, let us say, to start the boldest and most transparent kind of a get-rich-quick swindle, promising investors ten per cent a month, or any other return that his exuberant fancy may dictate; or, for a modest consideration, he proposes to sell infallible tips on stocks or horse races; or he desires to market at ten cents a share mining stock that he will redeem at fifty cents a share a month hence. He has no difficulty whatever in discovering some bank that will accept his account, nor in finding some moral newspaper that will print his advertisements.

Banks with every appearance of respectability have been known to lend themselves as references to the grossest of frauds. There are not many newspapers in the columns of which you will not find advertisements which even a detective would know to be swindles. The lottery business was carried on through thrifty express companies long after the Government had shut it out of the mails. It made a great stir when somebody pointed out that an important part of the revenue of the telegraph companies came from illegal pool-rooms and bucket shops. But that was business. Only when the swindle comes to the postoffice does it run against an institution that will not accept its money and assist in the thieving. Perhaps Congress should investigate this.—Saturday Evening Post.

NEW TURPENTINE PROCESS.

In speaking of the plants for the extraction of turpentine from pine waste, Mr. S. B. Ruse of The Jacksonville Times-Union says that the two plants recently put in by the Pure White Turpentine Company at Live Oak have proven a complete success. In speaking what one of these plants can do, it is said that a plant that can handle 50 cords of fat lightwood a day will easily turn out 15 barrels, or 700 gallons, of turpentine in 12 hours. At a conservative estimate that turpentine is worth $8.50, which is as much as you can produce by going into the woods and boxing standing timber with a force of 120 men, to say nothing of the teams required. By this process a result identically the same is arrived at by employing only 10 men. Any saw mill that cuts 60,000 feet of lumber a day, can by using one of these plants produce from its waste as much turpentine as can be gotten out of 25 crops in the open woods with a force of 60 men. The product, of course, depends upon the material used. Fat lightwood will give about 15 gallons of turpentine to the cord. Ordinary pine logs about 12, and kiln-dried shavings about 7 gallons. Ordinary sap slabs will yield about 5 gallons to the cord. So one can see easily enough that one of these outfits is worth at least $20,000 a year to any saw mill man in the State.

Apropos of President Roosevelt's keen enjoyment of genuine Southern hospitality, The Boston Globe says, speaking of the South: "It is too preoccupied today with its own splendid industrial growth and quickening to cherish the vain passions of an era that is gone or to be touched by any appeal other than the one of common kinship with the united Americanism of the new century and equal heritage in its glory and greatness."

THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

Now that the educational affairs of the State are settled, it would be unfortunate on the part of Lake City to enter into a legal controversy over the matter, as it is said her citizens propose doing. It is all well enough to compete for the seat of the University, but it is quite another matter to try to compel the State to come to terms. The entire State has a kindly feeling for Lake City in her defeat in the contest, and her people ought to seek to hold that regard. As a law, the Buckman plan is a good one, quite aside from the location of the University, and it is to be hoped for the peace and prosperity of the educational interests of the State that strife will cease.—Orlando Reporter.

With this week's issue of The Jasper News the Hon. John M. Caldwell assumes the editorial control of that paper, and he is too well known in the Florida press to need any introduction. He is familiar with the needs of that section of Florida and will labor for the best interests of the people. The Sun heartily welcomes Mr. Caldwell to the fold again. He will give it strength.

Owing to the fact that they will have other terms to complete, the Oregon Congressional delegation will not be able to serve their terms in Congress the coming session. Only one representative is able to get away. The rest have engagements with the State.

Wauchula, DeSoto county, boasts of being a town without a single negro. Up to a few days ago there was one black man in the town, but he could not get up a game of craps and had to leave in disgust.

Eight States will hold elections on November 7. They are Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina and Virginia.

Weak Stomach.

The power that runs the stomach is the nerve force sent to it from the brain through the nerves. When the nerves are weak or exhausted the supply of energy is insufficient and the action of the stomach is impaired, and results in imperfect digestion—dyspepsia.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine increases nerve force. It strengthens and builds up nerve tissue, gives vigor to the nerves and muscles of the stomach; this produces a healthy activity.

Nervine allays the inflammation, heals the membranes, and makes the stomach strong and healthy. There is nothing that so quickly gives energy to the whole system as Restorative Nervine.

"I can't say enough for Dr. Miles' Nervine. I don't know what it will do for others, but it certainly saved me of stomach trouble, and now I am as well as I ever was. Two physicians failed to relieve me, but in three or four days after taking Nervine I was much relieved. Four bottles made me a sound man, at the age of 54."

JAMES R. HART, Detroit, Mich.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

Football Brutality Must Cease.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 27.—President Eliot, of Harvard, has determined that brutality and unnecessary roughness shall cease in football played by Harvard teams, or that football itself shall be eliminated from the athletic curriculum of the university. At the Yale-Harvard game in the Stadium next month President Eliot will sit near the side line as a critic of the play. If there is any slugging he will recommend to the corporation that Harvard cease playing inter-collegiate football. The corporation could undoubtedly so vote and football, with Harvard eleven out, would receive a stunning if not a knock-out blow.

Decided Increase in Grain Trade.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Decided increases in the trade in grain is shown during the September and as well as in the total for the nine months of this year over corresponding periods of last year by summaries issued by the department of commerce and labor. These reports for this year are preliminary, and estimated to include 97 per cent of the actual shipment. This year the corn exports have been 82,752,212 bushels, as compared with 34,441,771 bushels for the corresponding months last year.

The injured were removed to the Delancy stree police station, where they received emergency medical treatment. One of the injured a man, it was said by the physicians could hardly survive. A score of others received cuts and bruises, but were able to go to their homes.

Think what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough that disturbed my night's rest. WOMAN ASSAULTED IN ATLANTA

Black Brute Attacks Woman in Her Store—Posse Chasing Negro.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 27.—Mrs. G. W. Moore, who conducts a store on Peachtree road, at the Seaboard crossing, was criminally assaulted shortly after 10 o'clock by a negro man who made his escape.

The negro caught Mrs. Moore in the store and overpowered her while no one was there.

Jailer Fain has been asked to send out his bloodhounds at once.

The assault, happening as it did, shortly after 10 o'clock, and comparatively near the city, was one of the boldest and most audacious that the authorities have any record of.

The negro selected a time when no one was in the store except Mrs. Moore, and overpowered her.

Mrs. Moore is prostrated by the shock and was unable, immediately after the crime was committed, to give a definite description of the negro.

Bloodhounds will be put on his trail at once. In addition, posses of men in the neighborhood have set out in pursuit of the negro brute.

It is hoped that he will be caught before he can effect his escape.

Mrs. Moore was well known in the community nearby, and had the respect and esteem of the neighbors.

OLDEST COUPLE IN COUNTRY.

Alabama State Fair Will Have as Its Guests Unique Characters.

Bessemer, Ala., Oct. 27.—The citizens of this city are very much interested in what is claimed to be the oldest living couple in the United States, brought here by Judge J. C. Burgin, of this city.

They will be taken to the Alabama state fair, where they will be exhibited for the next ten days. The husband, Elbert Gipson, says he was born in North Carolina in the year 1788, and has distinct recollection of events that took place in the war of 1812; reliable authority corroborates his statements. He is now entirely blind, unable to stand alone and weighs about fifty pounds. Old citizens claim that he has been in Shelby and Jefferson counties of this state for at least a hundred yaers. His life has been principally that of a farmer.

Mr. Gipson's wife, who claims to be 89 years old, and says she has been married to him for 65 years, is quite active for one so aged, and is constantly in attendance on her husband's wants. The home of this aged couple consists of a one-room log cabin out in the woods about 8 miles from this city. It is almost pathetic to see them there, and note their affection for one another.

Astonishing Incident.

It was, to all her friends, an astonishing incident that Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., was cured of her dreadful sickness. "Doctors," she writes, "had given me up; friends were ready to bid me the last farewell; clouds of despair darkened my horizon, and I was a wreck on the shores of despondency, when I began to take Electric Bitters for my frightful stomach and liver complaint. To the astonishment of all, I was benefited at once and am now completely and miraculously restored to health. At all drug stores; price 50c; guaranteed.

Interesting Railroad Statistics.

New York, Oct. 27.—Advance sheets of "Poor's Manual of Railroads," which will be issued November 7, gives the length of steam railroads in the United States on Dec. 31, 1904, as 212,354 miles, a net increase of 5,104 miles in the year. The heaviest construction of the year was in the southwestern group of states in which no less than 1,716 miles were built. Missouri having to its credit 418 miles, Arkansas 261 miles, Texas 318 miles, Kansas 317 miles Colorado 147 miles, New Mexico less than one mile, Indian Territory 260 miles and Oklahoma Territory 279 miles. Gross earnings increased $258,789,887 in 1904 over the earnings of 1902, or about 2.06 per cent.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in manufacture. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality; causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME

Are Never Without Pe-ru-na in the Home for Catarrhal Diseases.

Remarkable Cures Effected By Pe-ru-na.

Under date of January 10, 1897, Dr. Hartman received the following letter:

"My wife has been a sufferer from a complication of diseases for the past twenty-five years. Her case has baffled the skill of some of the most noted physicians. One of her worst troubles was chronic constipation of several years' standing. She was also passing through that most critical period in the life of a woman—change of life.

"In June, 1895, I wrote to you about her case. You advised a course of Peruna and Manalin, which we at once commenced, and have to say it completely cured her.

"About the same time I wrote you about my own case of catarrh, which had been of twenty-five years' standing. At times I was almost past going. I commenced to use Peruna according to your instructions and continued its use for about a year, and it has completely cured me. Your remedies do all that you claim for them, and even more."—John O. Atkinson.

In a letter dated January 1, 1900, Mr. Atkinson says, after five years' experience with Peruna:

"I will ever continue to speak a good word for Peruna. I am still cured of catarrh."—John O. Atkinson, Independence, Mo., Box 272.

Mrs. Alla Schwandt, Sanborn, Minn., writes:

"I have been troubled with rheumatism and catarrh for twenty-five years. Could not sleep day or night. After having used Peruna I can sleep and nothing bothers me now. If I ever am affected with any kind of sickness Peruna will be the medicine I shall use. My son was cured of catarrh of the larynx by Peruna."—Mrs. Alla Schwandt.

Why Old People are Especially Liable to Systemic Catarrh.

When old age comes on, catarrhal diseases come also. Systemic catarrh is almost universal in old people.

This explains why Peruna has become so indispensable to old people. Peruna is their safeguard. Peruna is the only remedy yet devised that entirely meets these cases. Nothing but an effective systemic remedy can cure them.

A reward of $10,000 has been deposited in the Market Exchange Bank, Columbus, Ohio, as a guarantee that the above testimonials are genuine; that we hold in our possession authentic letters certifying to the same. During many years' advertising we have never used, in part or in whole, a single spurious testimonial. Every one of our testimonials are genuine and in the words of the one whose name is appended.

ROYALLY WELCOMED IN CRESENT CITY

the Harrison sheds under a magnificent arch of triumph at Liberty monument, marking the battle ground of the 14th of September, down the broad boulevard of Canal street, until he finally reached his hotel, he had borne upon his ears and presented to his sight the evidence that New Orleans was glad he had come to visit her at the conclusion of the fight he had helped so much to win.

At General Lee's Monument.

One of the most stirring scenes of the day was that presented at the Lee monument. From its apex there ran broad streamers of red, white and blue, while on the broad circular mound that supports the marble column on which stands the heroic figure of the military commander whose genius the president has so frequently testified to, there were gathered 7,500 of the school children, each provided with a tiny American flag. As the president's carriage completely encircled the mound by the mound of flags and smiling faces of the children combined to produce an effect that was lost neither upon the immense throng that surrounded the monument nor upon the guest in whose honor the demonstration had been planned.

A BABOON HUNT.

Horribly Suggestive of Slaughter of Human Beings.

A traveler writing from South Africa describes a baboon hunt as follows: "Very slowly we spread out round about the base of the kopje and began a crawling ascent through the thick scrub. Kaffirs and farmers together, we formed something of a loose circle around the kopje. Daylight found us drawing near the higher spurs of the kopje and the Kaffirs were busy betting.

"Then the sport began, and pretty uncanny it was. A good many baboons broke through our circle, for we only mustered seven guns, but as we neared the top of the kopje I could tell by the noises all about me that some execution was being done. My first kill gave me a most uncomfortable thrill. It was horribly like picking off a man.

"The baboons were great big, human looking brutes, quite capable of picking up a lamb in their hands and running off with it. As a fact, they generally content themselves with ripping the beast open to get at the curdled milk within. But their cries were the most horribly human thing about them and the gestures of their waving arms. When we all met a careful count was made. Thirty baboons had been bagged. Seven had fallen to my gun."

HAARLEM IN HOLLAND.

An Old Description of the Bustling Dutch Town.

There may not be many points of resemblance between Harlem in New York as it is at present and Haarlem in Holland as it stood more than a century ago. The following translation from an old description of the European Haarlem shows, however, that it was quite a bustling place:

"Haarlem, that wonderful grotesque, with its canal, where the blue water trembles, and the church where the golden glass windows flame, and the stone balcony where the linen dries in the sun, and the roofs green as hops, and the storks that flap their wings round the town clock, stretching out their necks high in the air and catching the drops of rain in their beaks, and the heedless burgomaster who strokes his double chin with his hand, and the infatuated florist who grows thin, his eyes fixed on a tulip, and the Bohemienne who falls fainting on her mandolin, and the old man who plays the rommelpot, and the child who blows out a bladder, and the drinkers who smoke in the dingy wine shop, and the maidservant at the hostelry who hangs up a pheasant at the window."—New York Herald.

The Teacher.

The teacher must get away from his work for awhile if he wants to regain freshness of life. The weariness of Friday afternoons, when relaxation makes him conscious of the strain of the week's work, is nature's call to the need of rest. If he does not heed this call his efficiency will decline. A jaded teacher cannot arouse interest, and without interest instruction is devoid of value. Dull teaching is a fraud upon humanity.—Teachers' Magazine.

A WEST AFRICAN CITY.

The Capital of Liberia Was Named After President Monroe.

Monrovia was named after the celebrated president of the United States, Monroe, who is responsible for that doctrine which inhibits any European nation from further conquests in the new world. The capital of Liberia is divided into two parts, the low and shoreward sections being given over to large settlements of Kru boys and indigenous negroes, while the upper part of the town is inhabited by Americo-Liberians and European consuls and traders. This civilized part of the town is composed of broad grass grown streets and substantial, well built, comely looking houses, churches, offices and public buildings.

This smart appearance of the houses is in somewhat striking contrast to the neglected condition of the roads. These have never been made and are simply the unleveled rock of more or less flat surface. Consequently at the present time they are absolutely unsuited to any vehicle, though I have seen an enterprising Liberian negotiate them with a bicycle. They are generally covered with a very short, close tuft of thickly growing plants, which is kept in the condition of turf by the constant nibbling of the pretty little cattle that frequent the streets of Monrovia. A less agreeable feature are the pigs, which exist in great numbers and perform the office of scavengers.—Sir Harry Johnston.

A Whistler Retort.

James MacNeill Whistler, the artist, was appreciated among his friends as much for his trenchant wit and sarcastic sayings as for his genius. A young lady on one occasion, her first meeting with Whistler, was giving vent to her appreciation of the "artistic temperament" and was evidently of the opinion that she possessed that requisite herself.

"It is wonderful," she said in conclusion, "what a difference there is between people."

"Yes," replied Whistler, "there is a great deal of difference between matches, too, if you only look close enough, but they all make about the same blaze."

OLD TIME DENTISTRY.

Queer Instruments in Harvard Dental School's Collection.

Like many other of the "new" professions, dentistry is a very old one. It is known that 400 years before the beginning of the Christian era Egyptian dentists filled teeth with gold, but no trace of their methods of doing their work has ever been found. Aesculapius, the patron of physicians, was the first famous dentist in Roman history, and the old Romans used a toothpick very much like the little wooden one that is made today. The Arabians ages ago produced a dentifrice, but it soon seemed to be very generally used.

The story of dentistry is told in the instruments it has employed. As they are known today they had their beginning in the sixteenth century, but their evolution has been slow. In the Harvard Dental school in Boston there is a collection of instruments used by dentists in the first half of the last century. One of the formidable tools it includes is what was called a key, doubtless from its peculiar shape, which was used for extracting teeth, the process being to slowly and painfully twist and pry the offending molar out of its place. In order that no mistake should be made the dentist began operations by hammering and prodding one tooth after another with a sort of bludgeon until he had satisfied himself—not to mention the tortured patient—that he had found the most sensitive one and therefore the most likely candidate for extraction.

The grandfathers of the delicate steel tools that lie in rows on the modern dentist's table were small in number, but large in awfulness. There are in the Harvard collection chisels and mallets, rude forceps for removing the teeth, miniature crowbars used to repair cavities for filling, files for sharpening the cutting and grinding surfaces of teeth and one particularly horrid instrument, known as the pelican, with which teeth were "lifted."

How rapidly and recently dentistry has become one of the important sciences appears in the fact that in the middle of the last century blacksmiths were doing their best—or worst—to relieve the victims of the toothache, while today institutions like the Harvard Dental school attract students from all over the world. Besides, while it was sure torture to go to the dentist in the so called "good old days," such a visit now is comparatively comfortable, so far has the profession gone in the direction of performing its operations without causing pain.

Cures Winter Cough.

J. E. Gover, 101 North Main street, Ottawa, Kan., writes: "Every fall it has been my wife's trouble to catch a severe cold, and therefore to cough all winter long. Last fall I got her a bottle of Horehound Syrup. She used it and has been able to sleep soundly all night long. Whenever the cough troubles her, two or three doses stop the cough, and she is able to be up and well." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

A NATURAL DIKE.

The Volcanic Formation Along the Course of Fall River.

Nature is full of strange freaks and her agents—rains, storms, winds and even dust—produce results that might often be mistaken for the works of human hands, though frequently on a colossal scale.

Volcanic activities are mighty factors, and through them some wonderful phenomena are wrought. One of these may be seen along the course of Fall river, in northern California. This stream is of considerable size, and the work of nature's gigantic forces may be seen between the upper and lower cascades of the river.

It is what might properly be called a "volcanic dike." This dike extends for some distance along Fall river, near its banks and nearly parallel to the course. It bears close resemblance to a roughly constructed wall. The top of this dike is very ragged and the height of varying altitudes. In some places it is twenty feet high and several feet in thickness, and again may be easily clambered over. The rock of which this wall of nature is composed is of a very porous character, bearing some resemblance to pumice stone, though much more solid and of greater specific gravity.

That entire region is of volcanic origin and evidently was once the scene of great eruptive activity. Scoria and lava abound, though the face of the country is now thickly clad with timber and brush. The dike begins and ends abruptly.

The wall of the dike is evidently the result of volcanic forces, and has no doubt stood for many centuries. It stands clear from clinging rocks, has a narrow foundation, with vertical walls, and is very straight. The mystery is what forces of nature could have piled up or left standing this rock formation so uniform. This dike has puzzled not a few geologists who have visited and examined it.—American Inventor.

A FIERCE MERMAN.

Brand of Marine Monster Virginia Sported In 1676.

B. H. Blackwell of Oxford has published a careful reprint of "An Account of Virginia; Its Situation, Temperature, Productions, Inhabitants and Their Manner of Planting and Ordering Tobacco." It is, in brief, a pamphlet communicated to the Royal society in 1676 by one Thomas Glover, "an ingenious Chirurgion," who had lived for some years in the province. Mr. Glover would seem to have reckoned the sea serpent among the inhabitants of the colony to judge from the minute accuracy of the following description:

"A most prodigious Creature, much resembling a man, only somewhat larger, standing right up in the water with his head, neck, shoulders, breast and wast, to the cubits of his arms, above water; his skin was tawny, much like that of an Indian; the figure of his head was pyramidal, and slick, without hair, his eyes large and black, and so were his eyebrows; his mouth very wide, with a broad, black streak on the upper lip, which turned upward at each end like moustachoes; his countenance was grim and terrible; his neck, shoulders, arms, breast and wast were like unto the neck, arms, shoulders, breast and wast of a man; his hands, if he had any, were under water. He seemed to stand with his eyes fixed on me for some time, and afterward dived down, and a little after rises with at somewhat a farther distance and turned his head toward me again, and then immediately falleth a little under water and swimmeth away so near the top of the water that I could discern him throw out his arms and gather them in as a man doth when he swimmeth. At last he shoots with his head downward, by which means he cast tayl above the water, which exactly resembled the tayl of a fish, with a broad fane at the end of it."

No Doubt of His Honesty.

Deputy Sheriff and Chief of Police Alf Church of Woonsocket was known in his day as a man who was straightforward and blunt in all his dealings.

One day a grocer went to Alf for information about a certain Joe White, who had applied for credit and a book at his store, and the following dialogue ensued:

"Good morning, Mr. Church."

"Mornin'."

"Do you know Joe White?"

"Yes."

"What kind of a feller is he?"

"Putty fair."

"Is he honest?"

"Honest? I should say so. Been arrested twice for stealin' and acquitted both times."

Asking Too Much.

He With the Whiskers—Say, tailor, why don't you wear two glasses instead of only one? He With the Moustache—Why, dense take it, y' know, a fellah has to see, doesn't he?—Cleveland Leader.

Never be unwilling when you want to drive home the truth. Don't whip with a switch that has the leaves on it if you want to thrash.—Sheridan.

DREAMLESS SLEEP.

There Is No Such Thing, According to an English Scientist.

According to Sir Arthur Mitchell of English fame, there is no such thing as dreamless sleep; that thinking is involuntary—to the extent at least that we cannot cease to think under any order of the will; that thinking never ceases during life and is essential to the continuance of life; that dream thinking is uncontrolled and undirected by the will, is never coherent and concentrated, is more or less of the same character as thinking in delirium and constitutes a state of mental disorder which is not a state of disease; that thinking when awake is always to some extent under the control of the will by which it is directed to a subject and kept there; that there are many degrees of sleep and wakefulness and as many degrees of efficiency in the controlling power of the will; that thinking, like breathing or the beating of the heart, does not cause a sense of weariness, though all three have a wearing effect on all the organs concerned; that the will's inhibiting and directing work brings fatigue and a demand for rest; that the will finds this rest and refreshment in sleep and that the frequent occurrence of a state of disordered mind in sleep does not do us harm, but on the contrary does us good.

THE GAME LAW.

Quantity of Game Diminished by Amendment of Former Law.

Inasmuch as the hunting season is now on and many sportsmen are not familiar with the game law as amended and passed at the last session of the Legislature, for the information of those interested it may be said that the law provides twenty birds per day to each gun, but no party of hunters will be permitted to kill more than forty birds, regardless of the number in the party.

The original law provided twenty-five birds to the gun, and not exceeding fifty birds to the party, in one day.

An Afternoon Street Row.

John McCray and Rex Ross, hackmen, and Richard Roberson, driver of the delivery wagon for the University Grocery, engaged in a row at the corner of West Main and Liberty streets Friday afternoon, with the result that they were arrested by Marshal Pinkoson and required to give a bond of $20 for their appearance in the mayor's court this morning.

It is stated that the row started over the interference of the hackmen with the team driven by Roberson. They will have an opportunity to explain the entire matter to Mayor Thomas this morning.
